

Disaster Management and Business Continuity Survey Results

We did a random sampling of 50 organizations across several verticals to find out where their DM and BC plans stood. Here's what the results revealed.

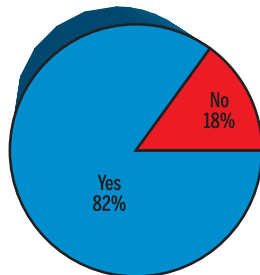

Do you have a DR or BC strategy in place?

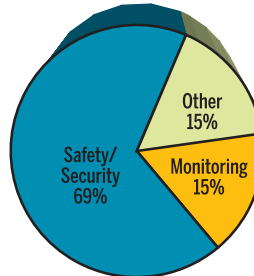

Are customers brand conscious when it comes to buying products for mission critical operations?

Was your management or business department part of the strategy process?

Why do companies purchase security products from you?

What caused your company to develop a DR or BC Strategy?
